IN THE HIGH COURT OF BOMBAY AT GOA

MISC.CIVIL APPLICATION NO. 787 OF 2006

IN

WRIT PETITION NO. 615 OF 2003

ANJELA PEREIRA ....Applicant

Versus

LAURENTE MASCARENHAS ....Respondent

Mr. C.A. Coutinho, for the applicant.
Mr. Valmiki Menezes for the Respondent.

Coram:- J. N. PATEL, J.

Date:- 1st December, 2006

P.C.:

The learned counsel appearing for the applicant/original respondent states that he may be discharged from the case as he does not want to appear in the matter of which due notice has been given to the respondent, copy of which is annexed along with the postal receipt and acknowledgment.

The learned counsel for the applicant/original respondent is permitted to withdraw and stands discharged on the condition that he shall intimate the respondent of he being discharged in the matter and that the respondent should make alternative arrangements to represent their interest in the matter before the Court by engaging any other Advocate as otherwise the Court may proceed ex-parte.

Application stands disposed of accordingly.

J. N. PATEL, J.

sl.